

New Course Fall 2006

Made by the Hendricks Chapel Quilters for Katrina Victims

Quilts and Community Soling 360, sec. 3/Ant 300 (3 credits)

Mondays, 5:30-8:30

Taught by Susan Wadley and Hendricks Chapel Quilters

This interactive course explores the role of quilts and quilting communities in the US and elsewhere. Each class begins with one and a half hours of discussion, films, and exploration of quilts and their makers—and the communities that result. Then class shifts to Hendricks Chapel where we will join the Hendricks Chapel Quilters and learn the process of quilt making through making our own “community” quilt. No sewing experience needed!

Readings include:

Pershing, Linda. 1993. “ ‘She Really Wanted to be her Own Woman’ : Scandalous Sunbonnet Sue”. In J. Radner, ed. Feminist Messages: Coding in Women’s Folklore. Urbana: University of Illinois Press.

Fons, Marianne. 1985. “Crazy Quilt” . In M. Kile, ed. San Francisco: The Quilt Digest.

Chiavereni, Jennifer. 1999. The Quilter’s Apprendice. NY: Penguin Books.

And more.....

Requirements: Readings, short papers, participation, quilt making.